William born 1872

Harriet born 1880

Both William and Frances births were registered at the Isle of Thanet, register office, in the sub district of Minster in Thanet. Both fathers are shown to be labourers. Both births were registered by their mother Harriett Clark made her mark, as she was unable to write. William and Frances were married at the Wesleyan Chapel, Hawley, Margate in the district of Thanet, on the 12/12/1869, witnesses to the marriage were Louisa Clark and Joseph Clark, both fathers William Goodbourn and James Pettit Clark are farm labourers.

They were married by certificate in according to the rites and ceremonies of the Wesleyan Methodists. Being married by certificate means both parties have to be resident in the registration area for the district for 7 days, your names are then entered into the official notice book and you have to wait a further 21 days before you are issued a certificate of authority by the registrar, only then can you can marry.

1851 William was living and working at Crisp Farm the owner was Ann Hogben age 61 and a widow, William was employed as an agricultural labourer.
