

Keble's Gazette July 1st, 1891

HUDSON'S MILL – OWNER MOVING

BIRCHINGTON loses this week one of its ablest and most respected inhabitants in the person of Mr. Charles. J. Hudson, who is leaving the village to take the Thanet Steam Flour Mills, Ramsgate. Although his neighbours in Mill Row cannot help feeling a sense of personal loss, Mr. Hudson will take with him their best wishes for his success in his new venture. Birchington Mill has been in the hands of the Hudson family for over 50 years, and "Hudson Mill" has become such a part of Birchington that one cannot fail to remember regretfully the old ties which will be severed by the removal of the business. The willing way in which Mr. Hudson has served his neighbours, both in parochial offices and in more private capacities, will not soon be forgotten, and it may be mentioned that it was largely owing to his energy that the Vicarage was completed.

As it looked in 1891